

RADIO DISNEY AND GRACENOTE SIGN LYRICS LICENSING DEAL

-- Lyrics Feature Now Available On Internet Radio Player --

Burbank, March 3, 2008... Further enhancing its connection to its listeners and their favorite music, Radio Disney, the leader in kid-driven, mom-approved music, has completed a licensing agreement with Gracenote, a leader in digital entertainment technology that allows Radio Disney to publish copyrighted lyrics. Kids can now see the lyrics and sing-along to their favorite Radio Disney songs while listening via the Internet Radio Player on RadioDisney.com.

Michael Peterson, Executive Director, Digital Distribution, Radio Disney, said, "The integration of lyrics into our Internet Radio Player is another way for us to leverage digital technologies to provide new and exciting user experiences for our young listeners who love to know the words to their favorite songs."

Jim Hollingsworth, Senior Vice President of Sales & Marketing for Gracenote stated, "We are proud that our service allows a way to enjoy music that respects all parties involved in the process of bringing it to consumers. It's a pleasure to share our lyrics collection with Radio Disney and be a part of an offering that brings a lot of excitement to music fans."
